

Mythology Syllabus
Lecturer: Zakarya Bezdoode
Department of English and Linguistics
Faculty of Language and Literature
University of Kurdistan

- Session I: Introduction
  - o The significance and importance of mythology.
- Sessions II, III and IV: From Mythology: Timeless Tales of Gods and Heroes
  - o The gods
  - o The two great gods of earth
  - o How the world and mankind were created
  - o The earliest heroes
- Sessions V and VI: From Mythology: Timeless Tales of Gods and Heroes
  - o Cupid and Psyche
  - o Eight Brief Tales of Lovers
  - o The Quest of the Golden Fleece
- Sessions VII and VIII: From Mythology: Timeless Tales of Gods and Heroes
  - o The Trojan War
  - o The Fall of Troy
  - o The Adventures of Odysseus
  - o The Adventures of Aeneas
- Sessions IX, X and XI: From Mythology: Timeless Tales of Gods and Heroes
(The Great Families of Mythology)
  - o The House of Atreus
  - o The House of Thebes
  - o The Royal House of Athens

Textbook

- Edith Hamilton. Mythology: Timeless Tales of Gods and Heroes

Further Reading

- Michael Grant. Myths of the Greeks and Romans
- Dorling Kindersley. The Mythology Book (Big Ideas Simply Explained)
- E. M. Berens. The Myths and Legends of Ancient Greece and Rome
- Arthur Cotterell. The Ultimate Encyclopedia of Mythology
- Robin Hard. Handbook of Greek Mythology